Contents

Contributors vii
Preface ix
Introduction to Volume 3 xi

Chapter 1 The Perception of Ingroup and Outgroup Homogeneity: Reintroducing the Social Context
Bernd Simon 1

Chapter 2 On the Overestimation of Between-group Differences
Joachim Krueger 31

Chapter 3 Accuracy and Expectancy-confirming Processing Orientations and the Development of Stereotypes and Prejudice
Charles Stangor and Thomas E. Ford 57

Chapter 4 The Social Judgeability Approach to Stereotypes
Jacques-Philippe Leyens, Vincent Y. Yzerbyt and Georges Schadron 91

Chapter 5 The Discontinuity Effect in Interpersonal and Intergroup Relations: Generality and Mediation
John Schopler and A. Insko 121

Chapter 6 The Role of Event Prototypes in Categorization and Explanation
Mansur Lalljee, Roger Lamb and Robert P. Abelson 153

Chapter 7 Affect and Social Perception: Research Evidence and an Integrative Theory
Joseph P. Forgas 183

Chapter 8 Long-lasting Cognitive and Social Consequences of Emotion: Social Sharing and Rumination
Bernard Rimé, Pierre Philippot, Stefano Boca and Batja Mesquita 225

Chapter 9 Paradoxical Effects of Praise and Criticism on Perceived Ability
Wulf-Uwe Meyer 259

Chapter 10 Evolution of the Self Concept in Adolescence and Social Categorization Processes
Augusto Palmonari, Maria Luisa Pombeni and Erich Kirchler 285

Author Index 309
Subject Index 319
Contents of Previous Volumes 323